SORABOSHI Umeshu

Umeshu built on Kenjo's own honkaku shochu, blended with a lactic drink for an opaque, silky expression of sweet and tart plum.

PRODUCER

Kenjo

Kenjo began in 1983 with an effort to turn off-grade carrots into shochu rather than waste them. That resourceful approach still informs a portfolio spanning honkaku shochu and liqueurs. SORABOSHI continues the same spirit by using the company's own shochu as the starting point for an unconventional umeshu.
